

3. A particle of mass m is placed on top of a smooth sphere of radius a that is at rest on a concrete floor. The sphere and the floor touch at the “Base Point.” After being nudged an infinitesimal amount, the particle begins to slide down the sphere due to gravity. How far from the “Base Point” does the particle hit the floor?

