MECHANICS

8. Consider a collinear system of 3 particles. The two end particles have mass m and are joined to the central particle of mass M by springs of spring constant k. Assume for simplicity that the only motion is along the line joining the particles.

   (a) Find the normal frequencies of the system.

   (b) Discuss the nature of the corresponding normal modes.

No solution provided for this problem